FAQs

Why visit North East Skills?

It's the biggest careers and skills event for young people in the region taking place at the Metro Radio Arena on Tuesday 29 and Wednesday 30 September 2009.

What can I do there?

Loads! With great interactive activities from 50 exhibitors including Royal Mail, Prison Service North East, Rio Tinto Alcan, Rolls Royce North East Training Centre, Sanofi-Aventis and you can find out about the world of work in a fun and lively environment. You can climb new heights with the Army, race to the finish line with Careers in Racing or brush up your hairdressing skills.

What makes it different from other events?

You get to find out about careers, training, enterprise and skills by trying them out and talking to people. You can learn about courses from Advertising to Zoology, careers from Accountant to Youth Worker, training from Apprenticeships to volunteering.

There will be interactive features, stunning stage performances, competitions and much more to help you choose the right career or training.

Who else can attend?

Anyone who can help you make the right choices is welcome. You can bring your family, friends or teachers along, to find out all about the opportunities open to you. The show is open from 9.30am until 3pm or there is a special evening opening on Tuesday from 5pm to 7pm to make it easier for families to visit and find out more.

Tell me more...

North East Skills is free to visit and you can find more, including how to book your place, who will be there and getting there at www.northeastskills.co.uk.
